FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:

Counts 1, 2 and 3, 18 U.S.C. § 1030(A)(2)(c), 18 U.S.C. § 1030(C)(2)(a) and 18 U.S.C. § 1030(b): Attempted Access to a Computer Without and in Excess of Authorization and Obtaining Information of the 3-Count Second Superseding Information. All remaining counts dismissed by motion of the Government.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $75.00, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25.00 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $120,000.00 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663(a)(1)(B)(ii)(3).

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $120,000 to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

The Court finds from a consideration of the record that the defendant's economic circumstances allow for restitution payments pursuant to the following schedule: Restitution shall be paid in full immediately.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with convicted co-participant Thomas Iazzetta (docket number SACR13-105-DOC) for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment. The victim's recovery is limited to the amount of their loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victim receives full restitution.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $20,000, which shall bear interest as provided by law.

The fine shall be paid in full no later than no later than 90 days after sentencing.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Stuart Jeffries, is hereby committed on Counts 1, 2, and 3, of the 3-count second superseding information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of eight (8) months, to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of one year. This term consists of one year on each of Counts 1, 2, and 3 of the 3-count second superseding information, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall reside for a period of four (4) months in a residential reentry center (community corrections component), as directed by the Probation Officer, and shall observe the rules of that facility.
2. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
3. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
4. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in any business involving the selling, reselling, or distribution of computers or computer-related equipment of any kind without the express written approval of the Probation Officer prior to engaging in such business or employment. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists, and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in any business involving the selling, reselling, or distribution of computers or computer-related equipment of any kind without the express written approval of the Probation Officer prior to engaging in such business or employment. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists, and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer.
6. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments, and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation.
7. The defendant shall submit person and property to search and seizure at any time of the day or night by any law enforcement officer with or without a warrant and with or without reasonable or probable cause.
8. The defendant shall report to the United States Probation Office within 72 hours of his release from custody.

USA vs. STUART JEFFRIES

Docket No.: SA CR 13-0088-DOC-2

9. The defendant shall report in person directly to the Court within 21 days of release from custody, at a date and time to be set by the United States Probation Office, and thereafter report in person to the Court no more than eight times during his first year of supervised release.
10. The defendant shall not possess, have under his control, or have access to any firearm, explosive device, or other dangerous weapon, as defined by federal, state, or local law.
11. The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons at or before 12 noon, on February 7, 2017 specified by the Court. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the United States Court House, 411 West Fourth Street, Santa Ana, California 92701-4516.

Defendant advised of right to appeal.

The Court recommends the defendant be designated to Taft Correctional Institute in Taft, California.

Defendant's bond is exonerated upon surrender.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
